You came to the right place

Hi Doobie91,

You get on the list by coming here and saying you want to get a donation. If I thank you then you are on the list. You are now on the list. I originally posted in the med request forum but people can't respond in there so that post was duplicated here in the green room.

Snow Tracks

Snow Tracks is a great smoke. It has a citrus smell and a nice mellow flavor. The buzz lasts easily 1/ 1/2 ours off of two bong hits. Thank you for donating to those in need.

😊 Message in a bottle

I didn't know how this experiment would turn out but figured can't go wrong giving away delicious buds to a group of cardholders. I like the way the thank you became reversed and I was thanking people for accepting my donation. That gets to the heart of it. This was a message in a bottle. Thank you.

Glad I tried this while BB was closed because the volunteers would like to strangle me by now for all the confusion and phone calls this Bud Bomb would have caused. I figured there would only be locals and people apart from their loved ones on OGF during Thanksgiving. It was a blessing in disguise being able to work out the kinks with only a keyboard.

Next time I will say this first:

1. Read the entire post before you do anything. There are 40 donations. To get on the list reply below with these words, "Squiggly Wawa." I will thank you to indicate you made the cut.

Perhaps an infomercial explaining things ahead of time is in order. Any creatives among us like to get together and make a youtube infomercial for free medical grade cannabis? - "Try my product -Squiggly Wawa!" I already have a GOrilla costume.

The main thing now is that everyone is on the list who is supposed to be on the list. The list came from this thread so if you notice an error or omission please let me know. Also, if you don't want this donation then gift it to someone and let me know who so I can change the list. Any unclaimed donations at 4pm Tuesday go to the volunteers. No layaway and there are no extras.

You may pick up your donation from BB between 12pm Monday and 4pm Tuesday. Please make it as simple as possible for the volunteers by bringing your questions to me, preferably in this thread. They will have no information that is not already in this thread.

Also, OGF requests you close any outstanding med request if you accept this offer.

Best to all,

otis
