Therefore, soup slurpant, it is bunny slippers for you. Sorry but your baby booties do not count unless you are going to wear them as earrings to compliment the proper bunny slippers that I am picking out for you right now on amazon.

First of all I'm secure enough and big enough to wear any DANG thing that I want and I like my fuzzy slippers but I WILL not wear earrings no matter what. So I say BRING them on as mine are getting old and I'm due for a new pair anyway.

Just have the volunteers at big blue inspect your slippers every day for a week. Don't forget the old school park handshake when you tip them out.

Now as for the:

"Don't forget the old school park handshake when you tip them out."

I'm not sure what that is. Now I know about the jail yard but I don't have much learnin about the school yard. I don't think the "volunteers at big blue" would like the way I play in the YARD.

So, since there are no objections I will take the remainder of these community approved buds and give them away with a clear conscience.

Objections I GOT NO STINKING objections. I say that since you won't give them all to me then PLEASE give them to everyone else as I'm sure that they have their own FIRE CEREMONY they can preform.

I saw the demonstration show what is moldy and what is not. What came home in my little blue jar is primo, top shelf budicine.

I am noticing some mold growth in the corners of my apartment's windows, however that has nothing to do with trolleys, soup or fuzzy slippers.

Everybody wins!

Imtohi was right, because one of the big buds DID have botrytis bud rot. Otishertz was right, because all the other buds were fine. I suggest you BOTH wear the bunny slippers for a week. 😊

In my last post above, When I reread it it look to me like I was responding to you I WAS NOT SIR. I was referring to us BOTH wearing THE slippers.
 The worst part of this is I can't blame it on IM TO HI as most of you know that I'm off my meds for a pee test for employment (HEY I can now blame it on IM NOT HI).
 So I say I'M SORRY if ANYONE read it as a dig at our FEARLESS PRESIDENT as that was not my intent.

I am pretty new to the whole gardening scene but it seems that with all the bombs that Otis has dropped that sooner or later some crud is going to get through. I think it would happen regardless of who was donating.
 Just my two cents but what do I know ?? I will go back to reading now.

"I dunno, maybe they are good. I like pot ~ I have not a single complaint on anything Otis has shared with me. It's been a learning experiance for sure, like now I know if anyone offers me Purpit2 that I should prob. make sure I'm close to a nice place to nap cause it knocks me OUT! I have lovingly renamed it "lay down" cause it makes me have to lay down lol.

P.S. If for some reason I miss Otis &/or Charlie in fuzzy slippers can someone take pics? Thanks 🍄

P.S.S. I have major respiratory issues (to say major is kinda minor) & nothing I've had from Otis has caused my lungs to pack their bags n move out of my body.....

😊 Coming for You, Bunny!

I gotta go make a few donations but I will be back for more of the Soup Slurpant. Charlie never had any mold because he never cured a bud. He likes it green as kermit. I have two of his ghetto handshake samples. I've never seen a sight so green. I thought they were moss balls. All the kids on the trolly thought I farted with Charlie's sack in my pocket.

I'll get aluddy to bionicam them. Guaranteed carpet fibers and stripper pubes in those buds.

I've been smoking marijuana of varying quality for the last 42 or so years and have seen some mold. Anybody that has ever smoked brick weed from anywhere has smoked mold. There was a time when moldy crap weed cost more than not moldy crap weed. (What were we thinking?)

Maybe we should get some sterile agar loaded Petri dishes and learn the dirty little secret about our medicine.

I did that on the air in our apartment and was horrified by what grew. Sent in one of the dishes for analysis and learned that I live in one of the highest mold count areas of the country and if I had allergies I should consider moving to a drier area. 🙄

That said, I will be looking closely and being straight up about what I find.

[QUOTE=otishertz;364580]OK, Nobody has to say, "No soup for you!" unless they want. However, you have to say a key phrase because that is how this works to separate the comments from the requests. The alternate phrase can be "I dunno, maybe they are good. I like pot. o0!)-"

By the way, this all started when I unfortunately gave Charlie a truly moldy bud I pulled out of a ruined jar in my dark kitchen

(in the first set of pictures) telling him it was great shit. So I gave him another nug from a different jar that seems fine and said try this one. Well, good thing he likes fuzzy slippers because he keeps kicking me in the nuts.

I'd like to know if there is anything wrong with these buds from others and if the trivial amount of white in the pictures that is present is harmful.

Could a geek please advise if a miniscule amount of mold on a clean indoor grow, undetectable by smell and requiring a microscope to find is bad for people to smoke and worse than the average outdoor in terms of purity, [are good. I like pot.o0}~"

Just wondering

I don't see what is wrong with riding trolleys (or any public transportation which helps keep cars off the road) or eating soup (it usually has most of the good food groups in it), so a trolley riding soup eater is apparently someone who is socially conscious and healthy!

Let's all ride the trolley and eat some soup!

Be kind like our bud. Have respect for one another. Do not make posts that flame another member, or start topics designed to disparage other members in any way. These will be deleted.

But First I have to deal with the loss of my GRANDMA 92 years young, passed today in my living room. Been on HOSPICE for a week (wanted to die in peace here at my home). I've been her caregiver for over 8 years, so I'm going to have to put OUR FEUD on hold for a little while.

So your lucky for now.
 But I will be back soon to get you.

P.S I thought that you were going to keep my 2nd girlfriend on the down low. If the IRON one finds out I'm going to have to run (because SHE'S scary and not one to cross).

😊 +1 Slurpent

Alright, score one for Charlie.

 I suggest you BOTH wear the bunny slippers for a week. 😊*

The deal was whether everyone liked them, not if they were perfect. No way out for the Slurpent.

Granny's Revenge

Charlie,

I didn't tell you last night but my perfect crop from one day ago was blown completely up overnight. PM and hermed. Thinking it was Granny's Revenge and she took a swing for you, bro. My crop went from beautiful to garbage yesterday.

My heart goes out to you during this transition. You are a good friend and I appreciate your penchant for mischief.

Truth is soup with Charlie is hella fun. The man has thee greatest outlaw stories from beyond the statute of limitations.

We are going to truce until Charlie is ready to bring the Weed Wrestling Confederation fight.

You are indeed an amazing man for taking care and loving your Granny so much that you were her caretaker for so long. Sending you a HUGE hug, and hope your heart will be comforted by the great love you shared with your Granny.
