 Praise to the Ele-can!!

Your a saint Mr. Hertz! First I have to say that I am, or rather was, the care-grower for my wife, until we had to start prepping the house for our first child who was born on 2/10 (he's awesome by the way!!!) Now, due to a lack of space, I'm just her caregiver, and I had to pass on the task of producing her meds! Unfortunately, the new grower doesn't have any meds quite yet, and what is left from my last harvest is almost gone! So this will come as a great blessing and be much appreciated!! People like you, Otishertz, are the reason this community is as great as it is! Thank you again and keep up the awesome work!!!

Dude your bUdZ ROCK!!!

Yesterday I upgraded my trike with an lolite vaporizer in my tool bag!

Today I'll be passing the drum statue... sometime between 4 and 5...
(not sure exact time, doing some chores... I'll check for messages when I leave)

Find me. I'll show you some good places to stop and vap. Either 5 miles to south or to the oaks bottom trail. Your choice...

 Praise to the ele-can

I dedicate this bomb to YOUR watering can!

I too have my oldie but goodies that I use for gardening and other things, so I can understand the ele-can! Isn't it amazing how one little thing can be overlooked for eons and then "click" you see it!

I am very new to using/growing/OMMP (1 month) and I could really use anything anyone has to offer. I have 4 plants right now that still have a ways to go, they are just entering the veg stage.

I could come up to Portland, I have my own transportation and wanted to go to Big Blue anyway.

I went to the social at Mama's yesterday and hear people mentioning Big Blue, so it is time I come up there to "visit" - LOL

Please let me know if/when and I will be there 😊

Thanks so much! I can't wait to be able to share like you and others do. It has always been in my nature to be the "giver", so I am excited!!!
